

Ranjit Bains

Principal – Kitsilano Secondary

S.D. #39S – Vancouver Secondary

Ranjit has been an educator for 20 years having taught diverse learners in modified, enriched, and IB courses in ELL, Biology, Math, Science, and Work Experience.

After teaching for 13 years, Ranjit became a Vice Principal in 2012 and a Principal in 2017. She is currently serving as Principal at Kitsilano Secondary School in Vancouver.

As an educational leader, Ranjit believes it is important to model her values, respect through building relationships, acceptance through empathy and inclusiveness, and personal growth through learning. These values drive her as a leader to listen to, collaborate with, and grow with the people in her community in the interest of supporting students for success.
