

Jessica Antosz

BCPVPA Director of Professional
Learning and Development

Jessica Antosz has worked in BC education for the 35 years in a variety of roles at the Elementary and Middle School Level. She has been a teacher, Vice-Principal, Principal, President of Learning Forward BC, a Board Director for 5 years at the BCPVPA and is presently one the Directors of Professional Learning and Development at the British Columbia Principals and Vice-Principals Association.

Jessica has presented at the CAP Conference, Learning Forward Conferences, and a variety of BC Conferences on the topics of Leadership, Leading a Culture of Learning, Study Groups, Change, and as well as other Professional Learning topics. She has a passion for Professional Learning and Development and enjoys working with others around the province of British Columbia. On her free time, she enjoys travelling, reading, swimming, watching sports, spending time with her family, and relaxing on the beach.

Favourite Inspirational Quote:

“When you have exhausted all possibilities remember this; you haven’t.” – Thomas Edison

Email: jessica@bcpvpa.bc.ca

Phone#: (604) 877-5386